Continuation of 4(e) Other: It appears Applicant has intended to amend claim 42. In line 5, just prior to the word "and" the Applicant started to strike through a blank space. At the very least Applicant should amend the claim to say currently amended or remove the strike through mark. However if the Applicant intends to amend the claims Applicant is urged to use proper markings and status identifiers so that the Examiner can provide a complete office action or that the allowance if and when given will be published correctly.
